

2022 Economic Impact

Annually, the event unites runners from across the city, nation and world and provides benefits to the Chicago community well beyond race weekend. Here are key elements of the 2022 Bank of America Chicago Marathon’s economic impact based on a study conducted by the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign’s Regional Economics Applications Laboratory.

Overall economic impact generated in 2022

$386M = 2,848 full-time jobs & $136.66M wages & salary income

General information

-  42,948 total participants from 50 states & 140 countries
-  33% international runners
-  1.7M spectators
-  10,000+ volunteers
-  $27.6M raised for charity
-  180 charity partners

Tourism impact

Total Spent (per person per day)

More than $163 million direct impact to the tourism industry

Sustainability

-  21,882 pounds of food and produce donated
-  740 pounds of water donated
-  18 tons of clothing from the start line donated
-  36 tons of material diverted from the landfill
-  400 metric tons of CO2e emissions saved

The Bank of America Chicago Marathon is a Council for Responsible Sport Evergreen Inspire Event, recognized for environmental stewardship and socially responsible practices.

